

How to use GarageBand on iPad

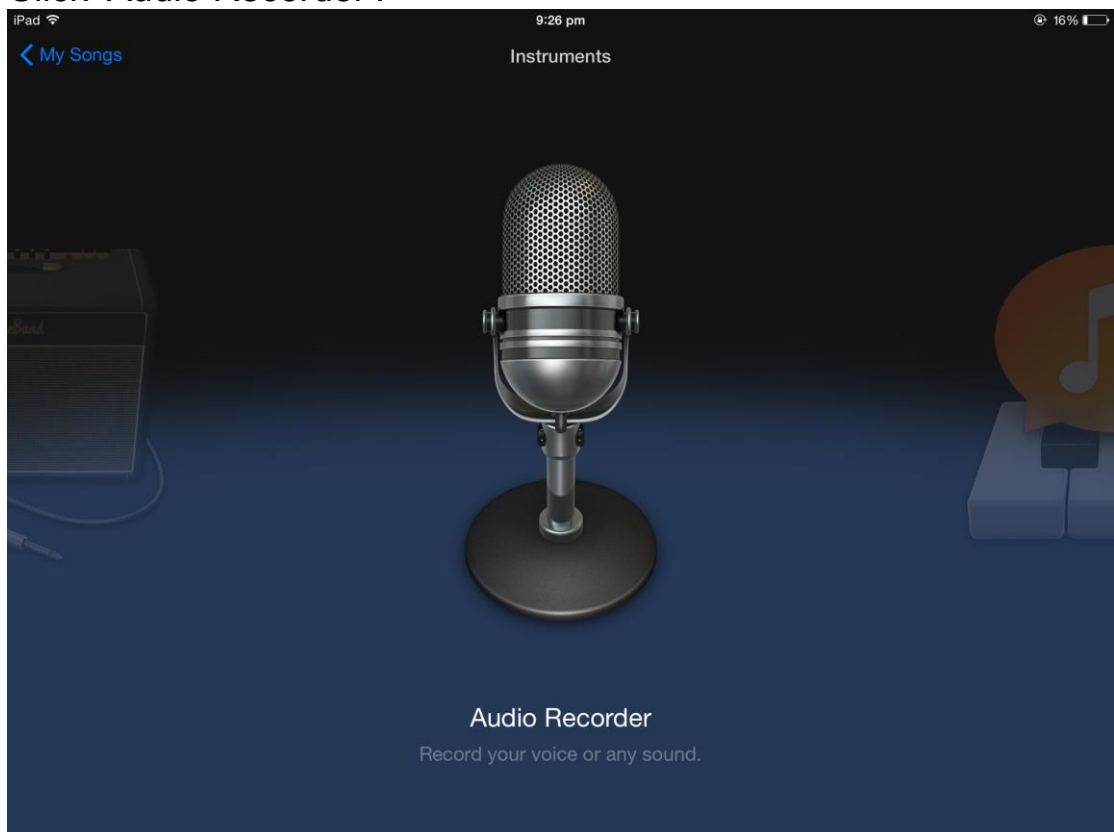

- 1) Open GarageBand app

- 2) Click + in top left corner.

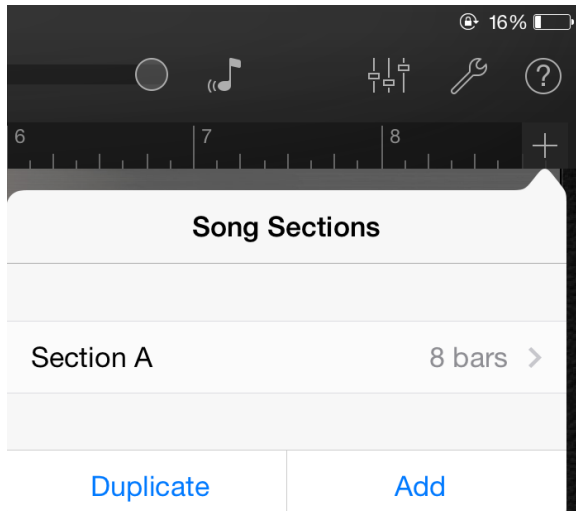

3) Click 'Audio Recorder'.

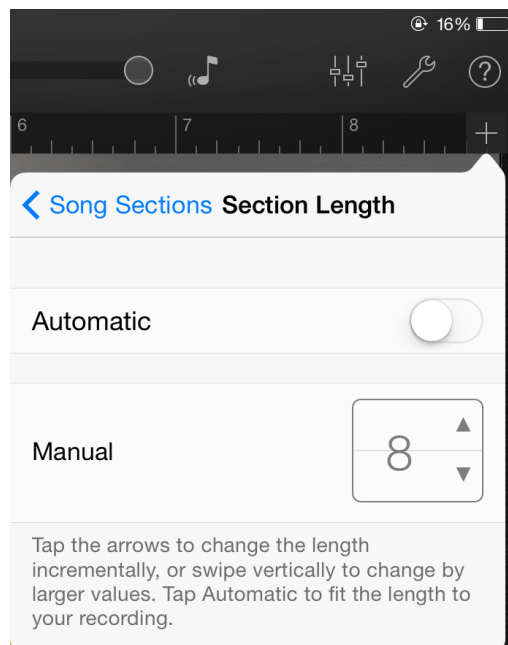

4) Click + symbol in top right corner.

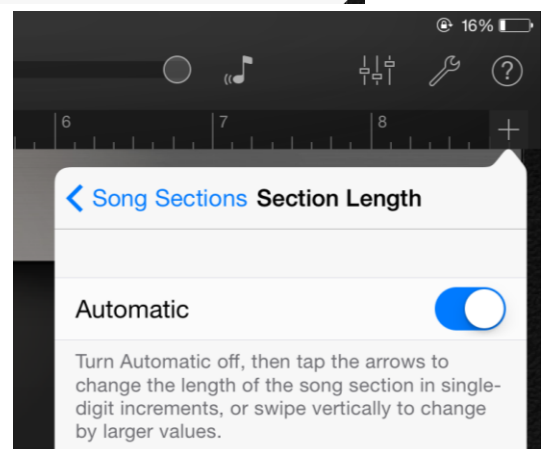

5) Click 'Section A'.

6) Click 'Automatic' once.

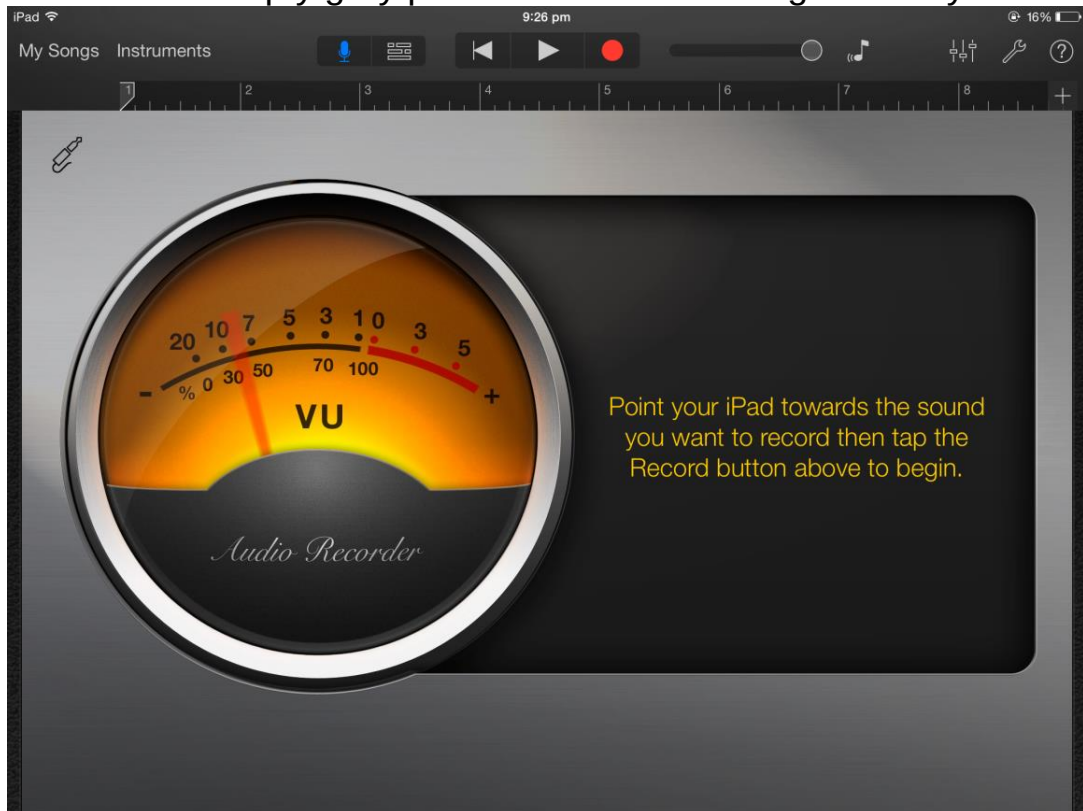

At first it will look like this...

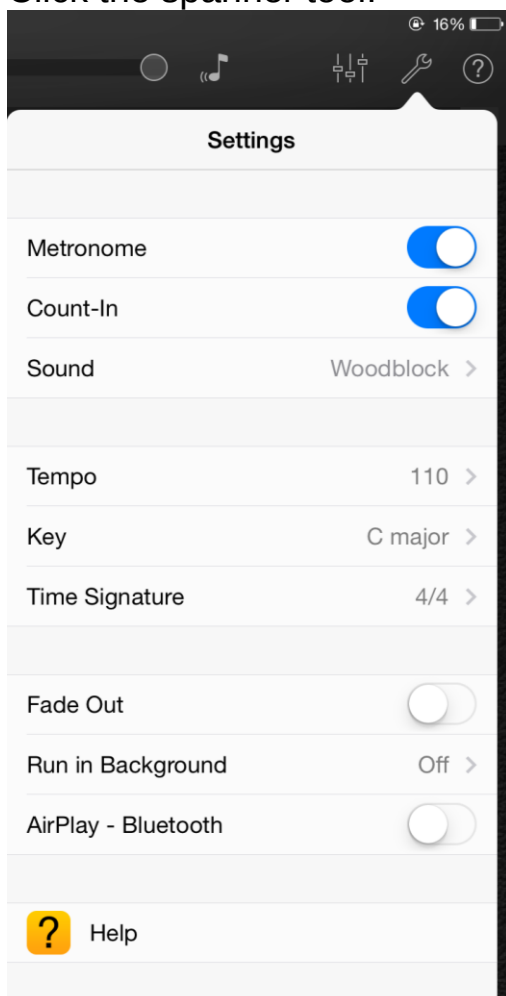

Click it once and it will look like this...

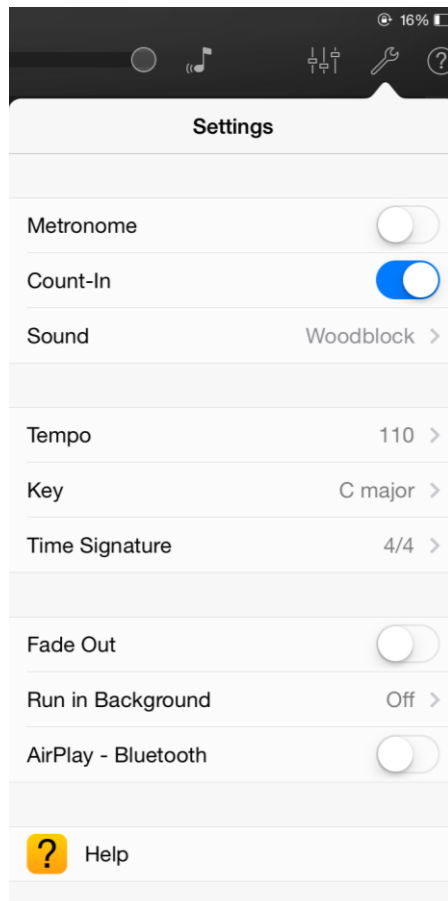

- 7) Click on the empty grey part of the screen so it goes away.

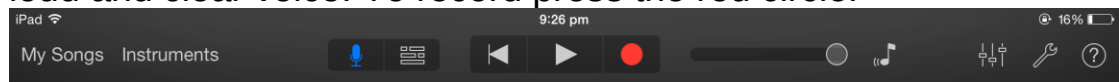

- 8) Click the spanner tool.

- 9) Click 'Metronome' once so it looks like this...

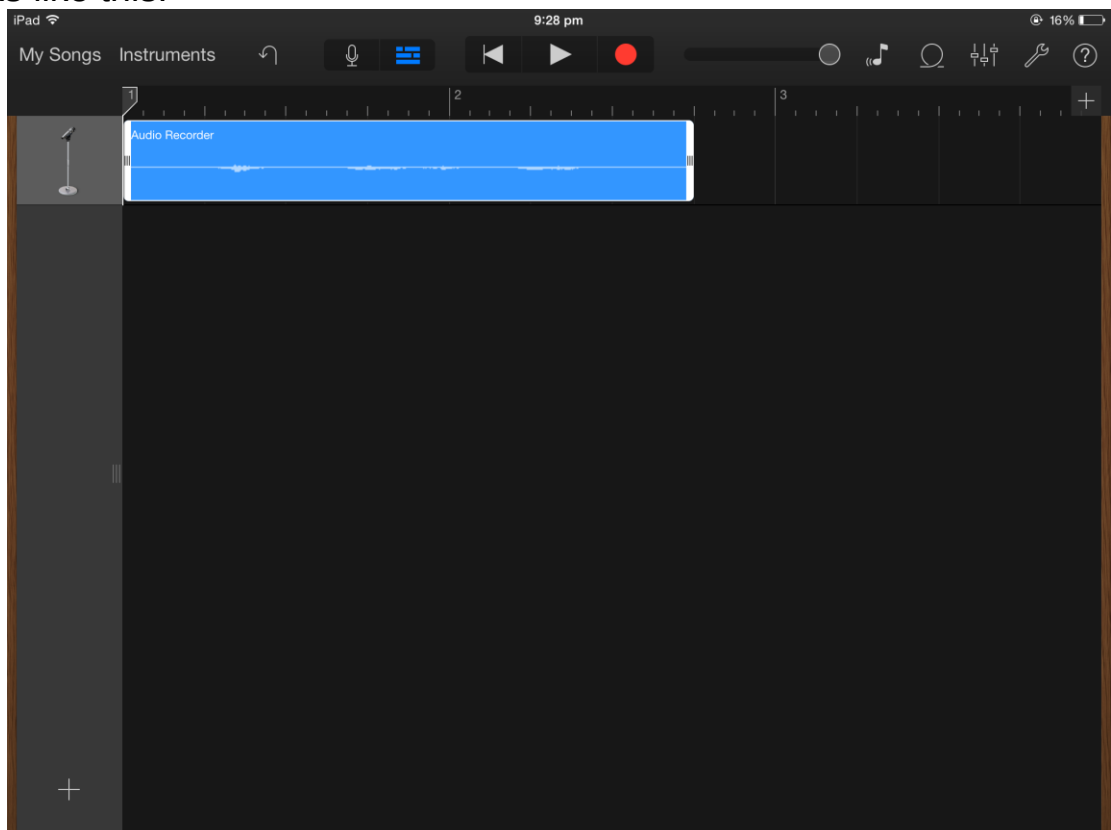

- 10) You are now ready to record, put the iPad close to you and use a loud and clear voice. To record press the red circle.

- 11) When you are finished press the red circle again. The screen will now look like this:

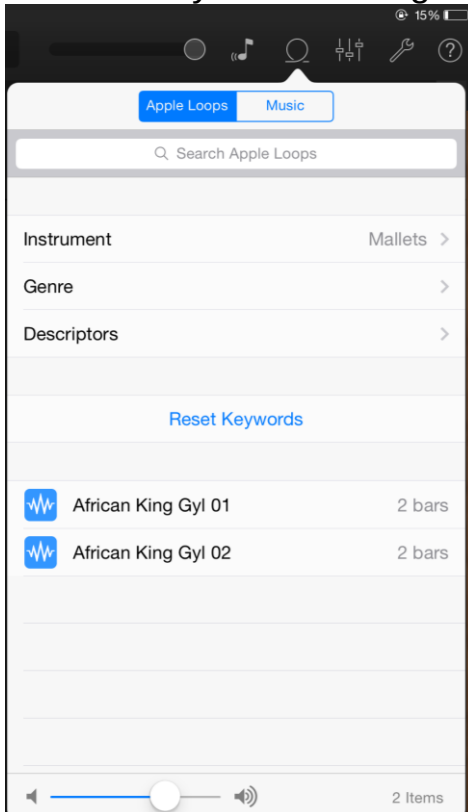

Press the lines symbol near the top middle, it will take you to a new screen that looks like this:

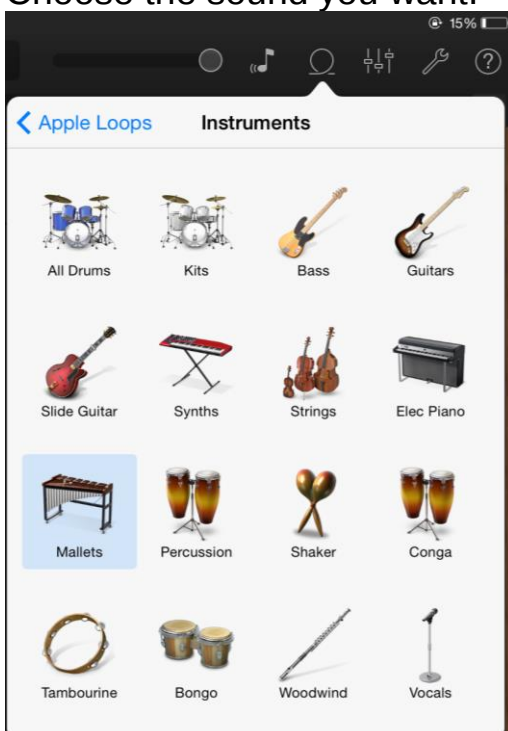

- 12) If you double click on the white ends you can drag the sides in to make it shorter.

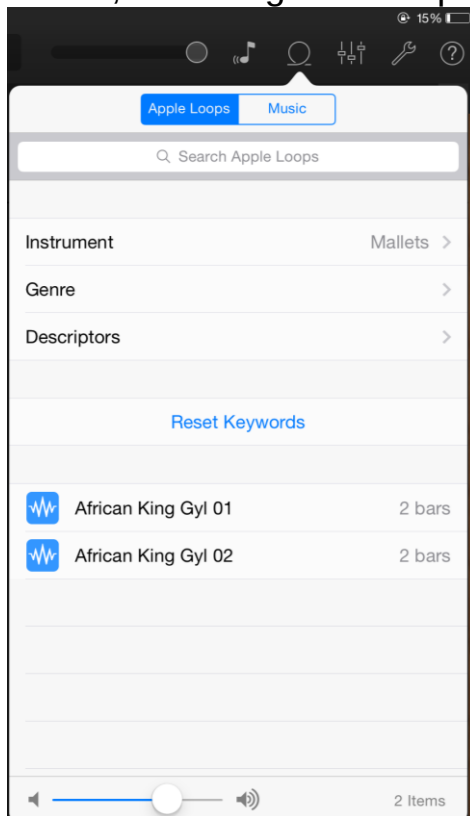

- 13) If you click on the loop symbol you can add music to the beginning and end of your recording. Click 'Instrument'.

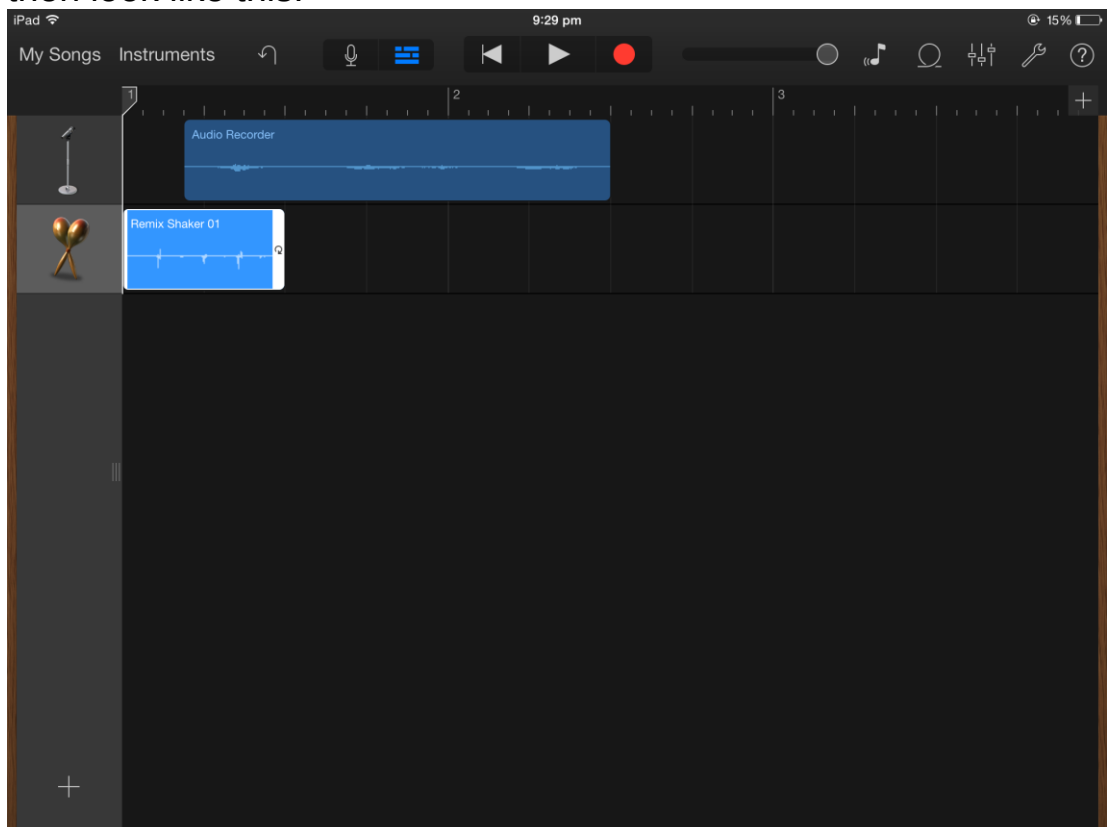

- 14) Choose the sound you want.

- 15) At the bottom some sounds will appear. Click on the sound once to hear it, click it again to stop it.

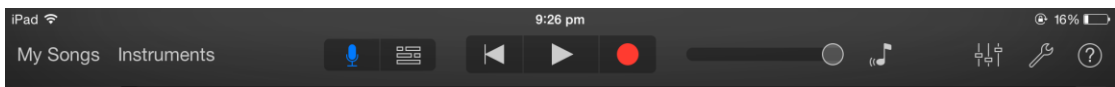

- 16) When you find a sound you like, drag it onto your recording. It will then look like this:

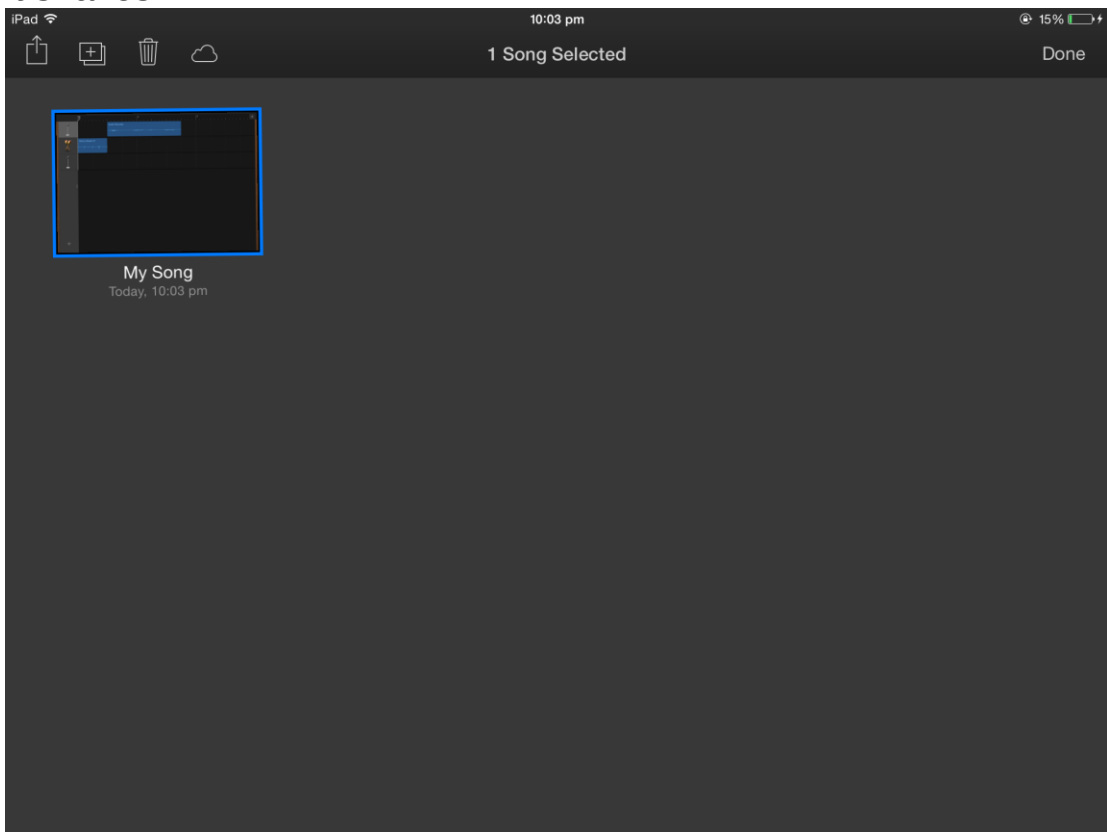

- 17) By clicking once then dragging the middle you can move the clip. By double clicking on the white ends you can make it longer or shorter.

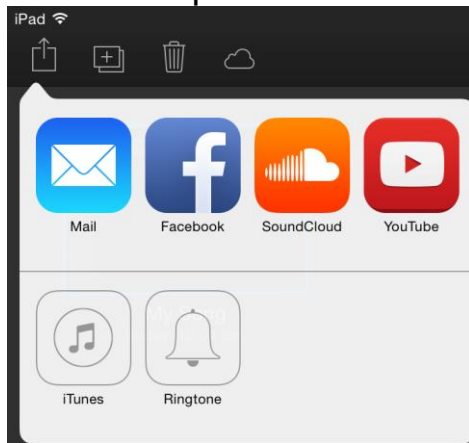

- 18) To hear it through, press the play button. Congratulations, you are now finished. Click 'My Songs'

- 19) Click and hold your finger once on the picture above 'My Song' until it shakes.

- 20) Click the square button with an arrow in it, then select 'Mail'

- 21) Put your name into the 'Artists Name' and 'Composer Name'
Put a title in 'Album Name'.

Cancel Share Song Email

MY INFO

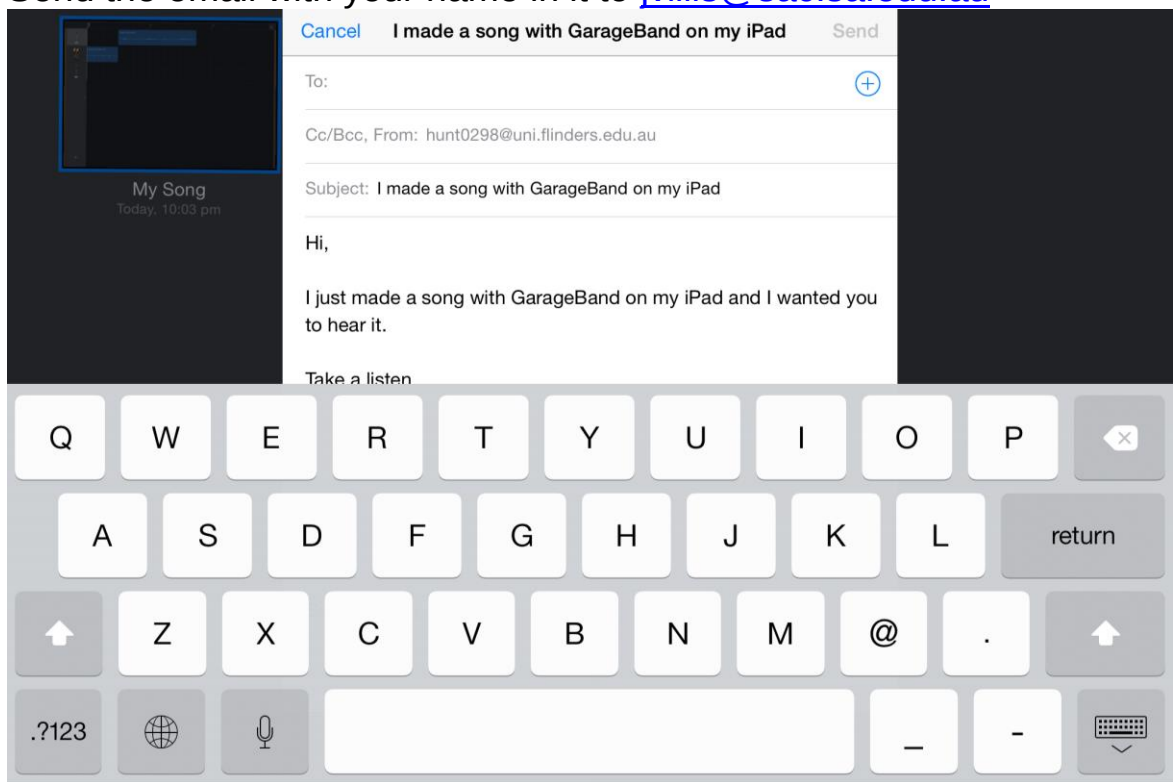

Artist Name Maddie Hunter

Composer Name Maddie Hunter

Album Name Maddie Hunter's Album

GarageBand will use this information to identify your songs in iTunes.

- 22) Send the email with your name in it to jvillis@sac.sa.edu.au

- 23) Finished!